

Education

A.B.D., Western Michigan University
M.B.A., Bowie State University
B.S., Strayer University

Career

Mrs. Oulai teaches in the Haworth College of Business in the Computer Information Systems Department at Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, Michigan. She joined WMU in 1999. Anne-Marie Oulai is specialized in Business Technology, and Information Systems. Mrs. Oulai teaches Enterprise Information Infrastructure, a course that provides a foundation to technology implementation in business.

Expertise

Systems Analyses & Design, SAP/Business Integration, ERP, IT Applications & Management, Microcomputer Business Applications.

Professional Interests

To pursue an academic career in Management Information Systems, Information Technology and/or Business Technology. Research areas focus on IT implementation in small businesses, educational technology such as online courses, and IT investment value in an organization.